Lenovo GaN Nano 65W Adapter

Tiny size, huge performance.

Take your productivity on the go with a Lenovo GaN Nano 65W Adapter, designed for fast, cool, and safe charging in a sleek, compact package. Its portability and performance make it ideal for business professionals and travelers. The 1.8 m USB-C cable ensures compatibility with most devices, and the use of 90% post-consumer recycled material shows a strong commitment to sustainability.

Why you need Lenovo GaN Nano 65W Adapter

Small but mighty

The Lenovo GaN Nano is the ultimate travel companion, crafted for those who demand efficiency. With a volume of only 49cc, it's among the smallest available, yet it packs a punch with its PC-level power output.

Performance with a twist

Utilizing cutting-edge GaN semiconductor technology, this adapter ensures a fast, efficient, and safe charging experience, all encased in a body made from 90% Post-Consumer Content (PCC).

Totally versatile

Equipped with a standardized USB-C output port, this adapter guarantees broad compatibility, catering to a wide range of devices, ensuring you stay connected and powered up wherever you go.
